Greetings from the Director

We ended the fall season on a positive note from a successful Romp & Roll Walk and Fun Run. Thank you to everyone who participated in such a wonderful event that continues to grow.

It was nice to see everyone during our Holiday Open House. We are gearing up for the new year with even more great programs and activities so please remember to send in our annual survey and share your ideas for future programs. For those who plan to participate, please remember to bring in a prescription for all the Mind/Body/Spirit programs from your physician. If you do not have an appointment scheduled, you may have the physician’s office fax us your prescription as well. Just a reminder that the deadline for the Spring 2014 brick placement in the Healing Garden is February 1. If you need an order form, visit the Centre or website at www.cancerresourcecentre.com or call the Centre.

Director, Cancer Resource Centre

A fundraiser for the Cancer Resource Centre. Speaker Taylor Miller is best known for her role as Nina Cortlandt Warner on ABC daytime’s All My Children. When her son was diagnosed with Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis at age 12, she was inspired to investigate the role that nutrition and mind/body have on one’s health. Today, she works as a certified Holistic Health Coach helping individuals achieve better health through nutritional and overall wellness.

Cancer Resource Centre Mission...
To promote the well-being of all people whose lives have been touched by cancer by offering support, education, and encouragement.

Community Cancer Research Foundation Mission...
To reduce the cancer morbidity and mortality in our community by supporting and advancing cancer detection, diagnosis, treatment, education and prevention efforts of the Community Healthcare System, and by promoting the acquisition of knowledge through clinical research.
Nearly 300 area residents gathered Dec. 4 as pink and lavender pine trees were lit by Dr. Janice Zunich. The lights program was started 14 years ago to honor those touched by cancer. This year’s musical guest was Ron Hawking. To date, the Lights of Life program has raised more than $130,000 to bring cancer research programs to people in northwest Indiana, southwest Michigan and the south suburbs of Chicago.

For more information about this program, call 219-836-6875. Donations are accepted online at: www.myccrf.com/lights_of_life.asp.

During the recent “Dress Down Day” fundraiser, students at St. Thomas More Catholic School raised $675 for the Cancer Resource Centre. Students who contributed to the fundraiser were allowed to wear pink shirts rather than the school uniform.

Advances made in cancer care today are available right here in our community thanks to generous support of the Community Cancer Research Foundation. In addition to the locally-sponsored clinical trials program available at Community Hospital, St. Catherine Hospital and St. Mary Medical Center, the Foundation also supports the Cancer Resource Centre. At the Centre, patients and their loved ones can find help in coping with a diagnosis of cancer through educational offerings, support groups and mind-body programs. Our annual fundraiser, Perennial Ball, provides us with an opportunity to reflect on how we can continue to make a difference by empowering cancer survivors.

During this annual fundraising dinner to support the Cancer Research Foundation, each guest will receive a set of note cards featuring winning entries from our Reflections photo contest. Photos selected for this contest will be those that are judged to best fit the theme of this year’s ball, “Reflections.” For more information on the photo contest, visit www.MyCCRF.com/Reflections. Deadline for submission is April 1, 2014.
Healing Touch

As a nurse, Linda Aimone, RN, C. CHTP wanted to do more to help her patients through the healing process. She studied a method of restoring the flow of energy through the body called Healing Touch and became a Certified Healing Touch Practitioner. Healing Touch is a complementary, integrative therapy, used in conjunction with traditional therapies that helps to restore the body’s balance by removing barriers to energy flow. That means practitioners, like Linda, use gentle, light or near-body touches to assist in “resetting” the body’s vital organs and systems in order to make the mind, body and spirit more open to the healing process.

“Many wonderful patients I’ve had the opportunity to work with will usually relax and even fall asleep during a session,” Linda says about the people she has met since first offering classes at the Cancer Resource Centre in 2005. “Being in a relaxed state after they leave me can help bring about a peaceful response which helps to enhance healing,” she explains.

Healing Touch is different from massage in that the patient remains fully clothed except for shoes. While patients usually lie on a table, they can also sit in a chair. The practitioner provides feedback as to what they felt as well as suggestions for keeping the body in balance.

Research has shown that Healing Touch can help to reduce pain and anxiety; relieve stress; provide support during chemotherapy; strengthen the immune system; enhance recovery from surgery and more. Free sessions are held every third Wednesday of the month and registration is necessary.

Romp & Roll Recap

Area families, business associates and Community Healthcare System employees turned out to Romp & Roll for a 10th year at Munster High School. Teams from Patient Financial Services, CSC Miracle Walkers and Lake Surgical Associates placed first, collecting some $97,000 for the Cancer Resource Centre annual fundraiser.

Paint the Town Pink is the annual, month-long initiative that has the entire city of Whiting covered in pink while raising funds for breast cancer causes. Activities include a Breast Cancer Walk, local schools and businesses fundraisers and a “Crush Cancer” fundraiser during Cruise Night. St. Catherine Hospital in East Chicago is a major sponsor and provides free health screenings during the walk. Program Co-founders Kathleen Ulm and Stephanie Madison and City of Whiting Staff Mark Adam, Norb Dudzik and Mark Harbin present a check for $10,000 to (far right) Anthony Andello, director of the Cancer Resource Centre, and (far left) Angela Moore, director of marketing and community outreach, St. Catherine Hospital.
